"Just Getting By"
The lyrics are printed below for the artists to use as inspiration.

Just Getting By

We roll along in our little tin cans,
Lock up in our boxes at night
And the grass keeps growing, and the wind keeps blowing
Through the gain and the loss in our lives

But we all live under the same warm sun
Look up at the same blue sky
Come in and out of this world through the same hard door
And I want more than just getting by
Yeah I want more than just getting by

Well the preacher & the pauper & the millionaire man
All struggle with the worries of life
And their wheels keep turning while the fires keep burning
Through the riches & the rags & the pride

But we all live under the same warm sun
Look up at the same blue sky
Come in and out of this world through the same hard door
And I want more than just getting by
Yeah I want more than just getting by

Why not give it the best that we can
And do more than just survive

Cause we all live under the same warm sun
Look up at the same blue sky
Come in and out of this world through the same hard door
And I want more than just getting by
Don't you want more than just getting by
We need more than just getting by
